AND whereas an Act passed in the Third Year of Your Majesties Reign intituled An Act for the better enabling Her Majesty to grant the Honour and Mannor of Woodstock with the Hundred of Wootton to the Duke of Marlborough and his Heires in consideration of the eminent Services by him performed to Her Majesty and the Publick wherein 'tis mentioned and recited that the eminent and unparallel'd Services of the said Duke to Your Majesty and the Crown of England were well known not only to Your Majesty and all Your Subjects but to all Europe and that the Alliances which Your Majesties Royal Brother King William the Third of glorious Memory had in a little Time before his Death contracted by the Ministry of the said Duke as His Majesties Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces for preserving the Libertyes of Europe against the Ambition of France were immediately after Your Majestie's happy Accession to the Throne by the said Duke then imployed [by Your Majesty in the same Character confirmed and improved [1]] and that others were contracted whereby the Confederacy which had been dissolved at the End of the last War was reunited in a stricter and firmer League and that in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign the said Duke of Marlborough had so well executed his Commission of Captain General and Commander in Chief of Your Majesties Forces that he not only secured and extended the Frontier of Holland by taking the Towns and Fortresses of Venlo Ruremond Stevenswaert and Leige but soon obliged the Enemy (who had been at the Gates of Nemeghen) to seek Shelter behind their Lines and in the next Campagn by taking Bon Huy and Limburg added all the Country between the Rhine and the Maes to the Conquests of the preceding Year and that in the memorable Year One thousand seven hundred and four when Your Majesty was generously pleased to take the Resolution of rescuing the Empire from that immediate Ruine to which by the Defection of the Elector of Bavaria it was exposed the Measures which by Your Majesties Wisdom and Goodness had been devised and concerted were pursued by the said Duke with the utmost Diligence Secrecy and good Conduct in leading the Forces of Your Majesty and Your Allies by a long and difficult March to the Banks of the Danube where the said Duke immediately upon his Arrival did attack and force the Bavarians (assisted by the French) in their strong Intrenchments at Schellenbergh passed the Danube distressed the Country of Bavaria and a Second Time sought the Enemy who had been reinforced by a Royal Army of the French Kings best Troops commanded by a Marshal of France and on the Second Day of August One thousand seven hundred and four after a bloody Battle at Bleinheim (although the Enemy had the Advantage of Number and Situation) gained the most absolute and glorious Victory as had been recorded in the History of any Age by which Bavaria being entirely reduced and Ratisbon Augsbourg Ulm Memminghen and other Imperial Towns recovered the Liberty of the Diet and the Peace of the Empire were restored and Landau Treeves and Traarbach being taken the War was carried into the Dominions of France all which happy Atchievements of the said Duke apparently tended not only to the Honour and Safety of Your Majesty and Your Subjects and of their Posterity but also towards the future Tranquillity of Europe and that Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament assembled thought themselves thereupon obliged in an humble Address to Your Majesty to express their Sense of the said glorious Victories and humbly to desire Your Majesty that You would be graciously pleased to consider of [some [1]] proper Means to perpetuate the Memory of such signal Services and that Your Majesty was thereupon pleased to signify Your Intention to grant the Interest of the Crown in the Honour and Manor of Woodstock and Hundred of Wootton to the said Duke and his Heires whereupon at the humble Petition of Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Commons it was enacted that it should and might be lawful to and for Your Majesty by any Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England to give and grant unto the said John Duke of Marlborough and his Heires and Assignes for ever all that the said Honour and Manor of Woodstock and the Hundred of Wootton and the Park of Woodstock in the County of Oxon and divers other Manors Messuages Lands Tenements and Hereditaments in the said recited Act particularly mentioned or described to be held of Your Majesty Your Heires and Successors as of Your Castle of Windsor in Fee and common Soccage by Fealty rendring to Your Majesty Your Heires and Successors on the Second Day of August yearly for ever at Your said Castle of Windsor One Standard or Colours with Three Flower de Luces painted thereupon for all Manner of Rents Services Exactions and Demands whatsoever in pursuance of which said Act of Parliament Your Majesty by Your Letters Patents bearing Date the Fifth Day of May in the Fourth Year of Your Majesties Reign was graciously pleased to grant All that the said Honour and Manor of Woodstock and Hundred of Wootton and divers other Manors Messuages Lands Tenements and Hereditaments in the said Letters Patents particularly mentioned or described to the said Duke of III. Further Recital of the Merits and Services of the said Duke.

AND whereas in the Beginning of the Year One thousand seven hundred and five the said Duke of Marlborough led Your Majesties Forces and those of the Allies to the Moselle where by the Progress made in the preceding Year a fair Prospect was afforded of removing the War from the Countries of Your Allies into the Enemies own Territories but that great Design through unforeseen Accidents was rendred impracticable and the Enemy taking Advantage of the Remoteness of Your said General and the Troops under his Command press'd the Armies of the States General which were left for the Defence of their Frontiers with a superior Force On this extraordinary Occasion the Duke shew'd all the Parts of a great Captain and at the same time the Zeal he had for Your

Majesties [Service'] and true Regard to Your Allies by a speedy March he returned to the Maes where a new Face of Affairs immediately appeared and Your Majesties good Allies the States General were delivered from the Uneasiness they were under Leige was relieved Huy retaken and the Enemies obliged to retire behind their Lines which they thought impregnable but the said Duke with a surprizing Conduct and Bravery on the Seventh Day of July One thousand seven hundred and five with an inconsiderable Loss forced the same defeated great Part of the Enemies Forces and obliged their whole Army to a precipitate Retreat and although all the Advantages were not obtained which the Duke had proposed to himself from that Success yet it confirmed the Minds of Your Majesties Allies and produced that happy Consequence of the Duke's being intrusted with such a Power as gave him an Opportunity of performing those great Actions which were executed in the last glorious Campagne in which the Enemy confiding in the Superiority of their Army composed of their choicest Troops gave the Duke of Marlborough an Opportunity of attacking them which he did at Ramelies on the Twelfth Day of May One thousand seven hundred and six with such Resolution and Conduct that in Two Hours Time he obtained a most complete and glorious Victory and prosecuted his Advantage without any Intermission during the whole Campaigne The Battle of Ramellies was followed by the immediate Surrender of Louvain Brussels Malines Liere Gant Oudenard Antwerpe Dam Bruges and Courtray and the taking of Ostend Menin Dendermond and Aeth most of which Places had heretofore employed the greatest Generals whole Campaignes in their Sieges and thus almost the entire Spanish Netherlands which had been contended for so many Ages were conquered in One Summer
